I made my one hundred and sixty-third scension yesterday, from the court yard of the Crystal Palace, at 3} n'clock. The lay was squally, and it was necessary to sait with a strong ascending force, so as o overcome the obstacles surrounding one. Phis created a sensation, when I gave the word "let her ga," as though I had been in jected by the force of gunpowder. In a lew minutes I envered the clouds. Ab we I saw, over a outch of clouds, the aceun dashing us pray into the clouds us it were.

At last the ascending power was overome, and the bills that I was throwing verbuard kept my company in the desent.
